

Hello Summer! Enrichment Camps

This summer, The Learning Spectrum is offering two amazing, fun-filled, enriching camps for kids on the autism spectrum and peers.

The first, June 12-15, is an Art and Drama camp featuring a week of creative fun while writing, acting, painting, sewing, gluing, and PLAYING! Come and live out some fantasy play with Ms. Lynne and Mr. Aaron as they teach drama and art to campers!

The second, July 17-27, is a two-week Animation Camp instructed by Sondra Williams. This camp has been a popular computer camp before and here, you will learn the basics of computer animation using the popular ToonBoom software. Create original cartoons and learn about computer graphics.

The camps take place at TLS Central location.

1/2 of the cost of the camps is due at time of registration and balance of each camp is due by May 31, regardless of which camp you decide upon.
